

We have been told a story of scarcity & separation necessary competition & systems of supremacy

This story is convincing because of manufactured isolation waste & hoarding & unmet human needs

such as:
sustenance understanding identity participation

THIS STORY IS NOT TRUE

but it is the root cause of multiple concurrent crises

AS PART OF NATURE WE ARE DEEPLY INTERCONNECTED AND ABUNDANT

Generosity Experiments

ASK AND ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT WHAT HAPPENS WHEN WE CREATE EMBODIED OPPORTUNITIES TO EXPERIENCE GENEROSITY
THROUGH THE GIVING AND RECEIVING OF GOOD THINGS FREELY

IN ADDITION TO CO-DESIGNING

Generosity Scarborough: an Intergenerational Skills-Sharing Program In collaboration with Feed Scarborough

WE WILL CO-DESIGN ANOTHER EXPERIMENT

By surfacing community assets and co-designing a program to share these widely

CREATE A GENEROSITY MAP

Which highlights where people are openly practicing generosity and how

AND CONVENE A GENEROSITY FESTIVAL

In collaboration with partners to celebrate and amplify existing opportunities to experience generosity across our city

OUR LEARNINGS AND STORIES

Will be shared to inspire and nurture generosity as a tangible practice for inter-connection and abundance.

GENEROSITY EXPERIMENTS SURFACE WHAT IS ALREADY THRIVING IN COMMUNITY TO BETTER UNDERSTAND

CAN WE BEGIN TO UNDERSTAND OURSELVES DIFFERENTLY?

DO THESE EXPERIMENTS INCREASE BELONGING & RESILIENCE?

CAN WE CREATE LOCAL CIVIC ECONOMIES?
